From Your Senior Warden:

What a fabulous celebration for our Jeannie!!!! Again, "Thank you" to everyone who helped to make it all happen. And now she is off on her next journey. I know she feels our prayers and support wherever she goes, and I know we will have a chance to hear from her again. We will just have to wait awhile.

And now, our next journey begins as well. Our vestry met last Tuesday evening. The meeting opened with a helpful Q&A with the diocesan liaison for transitional ministry. He has been with us from the very beginning and I know it was helpful for our new members to get the chance to hear his wise words and talk with him. Our first step on this part of the journey will be to meet together and identify the group from our congregation who will undertake the important task of putting together our profile. This will be a document that best describes who we are as a parish, where our strengths and talents lie, and the attributes we feel are the most beneficial in our search for our next rector. There will be a chance for everyone's input in the form of questionnaires surveys and lots of shared communication. This cannot be a rushed project. It will take as long as is needed to best describe who we are as the body of Christ in this community. We ask the Holy Spirit for guidance and patience

In the meantime, we will continue what we do best: meet together as God's family each week, look out for each other, celebrate with song and prayers, and do God's business in this world. WE ARE VERY GOOD AT THAT! Two supply clergy have offered their services. Fr. Peter Wright and Rev. Valerie Hart will trade off Sunday services with each other through Easter. I am currently putting together a list of local clergy who can be called in cases of pastoral emergencies. There is already discussion on putting together a phone tree (like we had during Covid) that will reach out to all the members of our congregation, to help keep everyone in the "fold". We are "Trinity Strong"

God is good – Faith is strong – All shall be well

The Book Club will be meeting on Saturday March 12th. This month's featured book is And Now Miguel by Joseph Krumgold and Jean Charlot. The club meets in the Parish Library from 9:30am - 11:00am. Come join everyone for a truly enjoyable morning, and some lively literary discussions. A synopsis follows:

He wanted to be treated like a man, not a child.

Every summer the men of the Chavez family go on a long and difficult sheep drive to the mountains. All the men, that is, except for Miguel. All year long, twelve-year-old Miguel tries to prove that he, too, is up to the challenge, that he, too is ready to take the sheep into his beloved Sangre de Cristo Mountains.

When his deeds go unnoticed, he prays to San Ysidro, the saint for farmers everywhere. And his prayer is answered . . . but with devastating consequences.

When you act like an adult but get treated like a child, what else can you do but keep your wishes secret and pray that they'll come true.

This is the story of a twelve-year-old Miguel Chavez, who yearns in his heart to go with the men of his family on a long and hard sheep drive to the Sangre de Cristo Mountains--until his prayer is finally answered, with a disturbing and dangerous exchange.

It's that time of year again! Yes, the dreaded "spring forward." While we love the longer days, we are not so crazy about the loss of an hour of sleep! Don't forget to turn your clocks ahead before going to bed on Saturday March 11th.

Youth Group News!

Youth Group will continue to meet on Sunday afternoons from 4 to 5:30. All middle school and high school aged children are welcome to join in the fun! Just a heads up however, there will be no Youth Group on Sunday, March 12th due to The Oscars. If you have any questions, please contact Youth Director Alex at alexander.long96@gmail.com.

As always, we thank each and every one of you who have donated and helped support the youth program with money, food, and of course your commitment of time. As we go into this new phase at Trinity, it is of the utmost importance that our young people have the opportunity to meet and grow together in a faith based environment outside of just conventional church services. We also encourage you to invite friends and family to come to Youth Group as we are always welcoming of new attendants!

Alex
