A historical account of political, military, and diplomatic events from the time of Judaea's relationship with Syria and the Israelites' struggle to hold on to their faith.

In First Maccabees, the author presents an objective historical account of the persecution of the Jews by Antiochus IV. It deals with the rise and legitimacy of the Hasmonean dynasty, beginning with an account of the life of the Jewish priest Mattathias, a forefather of the Maccabean revolt.

The May featured book is:

“ORDINARY GRACE” by William Kent Krueger.

New Bremen, Minnesota, 1961. The Twins were playing their debut season, ice-cold root beers were selling out at the soda counter of Halderson’s Drugstore, and Hot Stuff comic books were a mainstay on every barbershop magazine rack. It was a time of innocence and hope for a country with a new, young president. But for thirteen-year-old Frank Drum it was a grim summer in which death visited frequently and assumed many forms.

Accident. Nature. Suicide. Murder.

Frank begins the season preoccupied with the concerns of any teenage boy, but when tragedy unexpectedly strikes his family—which includes his Methodist minister father; his passionate, artistic mother; Juilliard-bound older sister; and wise-beyond-his-years kid brother—he finds himself thrust into an adult world full of secrets, lies, adultery, and betrayal, suddenly called upon to demonstrate a maturity and gumption beyond his years.

Told from Frank’s perspective forty years after that fateful summer, Ordinary Grace is a brilliantly moving account of a boy standing at the door of his young manhood, trying to understand a world that seems to be falling apart around him. It is an unforgettable novel about discovering the terrible price of wisdom and the enduring grace of God.

TRINITY MINISTRY OF THE MONTH THE WELCOME COMMISSION

What do they do anyway?

The mission of the Welcome Commission is to make sure that all newcomers are greeted and feel welcome to the Trinity service.

You maybe saying “Isn’t that what we all should do?” and you would be correct.

But they also make sure to reach out at the peace and invite them to the coffee hour. They may ask a current parishioner with similar dynamics to greet them after the service.

They invite them to fill out “Welcome Cards” so they can receive Trinity updates.

(by the way new ones are being made...it’s on the list)

The church office also uses the information to send out personal Welcome letters.

Is this a ministry that you feel called to join?
